

Are you our new Digital Designer?

Come and join our AWESOME creative team building!

THE ROLE

As Digital Designer at Better Collective, you will be working in a team of talented and experienced designers, building top of the class digital products for sports betting fans across the world!

Your tasks will be anything from cool graphics designs within fixed guidelines to redesigning brand sites or building complete new websites for our users. We expect you to have solid design skills and a burning desire to learn even more.

We have front-end developers for the HTML and UX experts for ideating, testing and refining, so you will be able to dedicate all your time to designing the coolest UIs and features, and you have a good balance of perfecting the details, and delivering on time.

You will be a part of a dedicated and ambitious design team. It will be challenging and fun, we expect you to be an inspiring co-worker, contribute to the direction of the project and fit into an open feedback culture.

We are very proud of what we do, and in order to be a successful Digital Designer at Better Collective, you need to be too. We expect you to have graphical flair, and we expect you to be able to always take the users into account when designing.

IF YOU ARE OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE, THEN YOU

- Have graphical flair
- Are passionate about designing
- Are into sports and potentially also betting
- Can deliver user oriented designs
- Can work with tight deadlines
- Know you can always learn more
